Our objective is to teach you to become an awesome open house closer. If you have come to the point in your career where you no longer want to sit there day to day fitting and dispensing hearing aids, this is your ticket out of the office.

There is no other company that will teach you to be a closer because they consider that to be their secret and their job security.

Our objective can also to teach you to become an awesome hearing aid sales consultant or sales audiologist without any high sales pressure.

Being a superb day to day clinic consultant with the ability to sell makes you a very valuable person.

You will learn how to fill your office with prospects and never again say:

“If I only could get them in here, I could sell hearing aids!”
