HEARING AID OFFICE
LOCATION OBJECTIVES

Ok, either you just got your license and now need to make a living or you are well seasoned and striking out on your own. Whatever the case, this decision determines how you live now and how you will retire !

If you are an existing office owner and want to expand your practice these multi million dollar decisions are crucial.

We teach you how to generate demographic studies and how to select the appropriate office size and location to maximize walk in traffic and public awareness.

How to position your practice within the appropriate drawing radius helps you generate more bang for the buck.

Decisions as to rent or own are also part of this writing. We are not acting as your CPA, but helping you to present your situation to those professionals that will help analyze that very important decision.

LOCATION ! LOCATION ! LOCATION !

This is a great read designed to help you further your decision with noteworthy information .

REMEMBER, if you are going to invest your time and money in a hearing aid dispensing location... Make it count !

Read this manuscript for more help. Don't make a huge mistake by getting into the wrong spot !
